

Bield at Blackruthven

A Day of Blessing

Facilitated by Marianne & Robin
Anker-Petersen

Sunday 24th September 2017
11am – 4:30pm
Cost £42

The beauty of blessing is that it recognizes no barriers – and no distances. All the given frontiers of blockage that separate and distance us can be penetrated by the loving subtlety of blessing.

John O'Donohue

(includes lunch and refreshments)

Guests are welcome to come along at 10am and join our morning service followed by coffee at 10:30am

This is a day to reflect on what it means to bless others and to be blessed. Blessing is invoking God's life, wholeness, healing, light, strengthening, and protection. We are all called to be people who receive and give blessing.

We will think together about blessings in the Bible and in Celtic spirituality to inspire us. You will also have the opportunity to write/create your own blessings and share them if you so wish. We will begin and finish with a time of reflective worship.

*Deep peace of the running wave to you.
Deep peace of the flowing air to you.
Deep peace of the quiet earth to you.
Deep peace of the shining stars to you.
Deep peace of the Son of Peace to you.
Celtic blessing*
