A day in the Living Reflectively series

Each of us has our own next of kin. People to whom we are related by blood and family ties. But who are your spiritual next of kin? Who are you most related to spiritually?

Who shares your spiritual DNA? Who would you trust your soul to in an emergency?

This day is for people who want to dig deeper into their own spiritual DNA and reclaim their own cloud of witnesses in the good company of other spirited nomads and pilgrims.

The day will use a variety of creative action methods – music, story, visual imagery and embodiment – as a way into uncovering /recovering our own inner spiritual guides and companions.

'Faith is rarely where your head is.
Nor is it even where your heart is.
Faith is where your ass is!'
